

EYE GAZE BOARD

1. The partner holds the board at eye level approximately two to three feet from the user
2. The partner should be seated at the user's eye level (while holding the board between him/herself and the user)
3. The user looks at the "dot in the square containing the letter he/she wants
4. The partner will confirm what square the user is looking at by saying that number
5. The partner will then read the letters in that square, pausing after each one
6. When the partner reads the desired letter, the user should indicate yes
7. Follow steps 3-6 until the message is spelled
